

Pace study abroad program types - what's the difference?

	EXCHANGE	PARTNER	SUMMER	FACULTY-LED
Program description	Foreign University	Foreign University or Program Provider	Foreign University or Program Provider	Pace course + led by Pace professor + Pace students
Terms	Semester, Academic Year	Semester, Academic Year	Summer I and/or II	Semester course at Pace – with travel in January, Spring break, or Summer
Student body	Host university: mix of local, international, and U.S. students	Host university/program: mix of local, international, and/or U.S. students	Host university/program: international and/or U.S. students	Pace students only
Housing	Dorm/shared apartment	Dorm/shared apartment	Dorm/shared apartment	Hotel
Student independence	Medium to High	Medium to High	Medium	Low
Grades factor into GPA	NO	NO	NO	YES
Credit hours	12 to 15	12 to 15	3 to 6 (per summer term)	3 to 6
Spots available	Limited (depending on the program)	Unlimited	Unlimited	Varies by program
Application deadlines	Fall semester: Feb. 15 Spring semester: Sept. 15	Fall semester: Mar. 15 Spring semester: Oct. 15	Summer: March 15	Fall course: Apr. 15 Spring course: Nov. 15 Apps accepted on a space- available basis until add-drop
Tuition & Fees: paid to	Pace	Pace	Students pay universities abroad directly	Pace – course credit included in semester courseload, plus “Program Fee” for travel
Housing: paid to	Foreign University or independent housing	Foreign University / Program Provider / independent housing	Foreign University / Program Provider / independent housing	Housing included in "Program Fee" paid to Pace
Pace Institutional Aid applies	YES	YES - up to $10,000 per semester	NO	YES
Federal and/or NY State Aid applies	YES	YES	YES (with minimum 6 credit hours)	YES